

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Oct. 1, 2019

CONTACT: Lauren Creiman
(909) 885-3353

Thousands of Inland Empire Students Exp0.6 (d)0.5 ( E5o0y) Chaffey Joint Union High school districts and San Bernardino County pooled resources to provide families a diverse and comprehensive event. Representatives from more than 70 universities, technical colleges, and eight Cal State University campuses, nine UC schools and colleges from England.

“We are thrilled at the extraordinary response to the regional fair; it exceeded our expectations,” Fontana Unified Superintendent Randal S. Bassett said. “Rialto and Chaffey Joint Union are helping families along the path to higher education. Many thanks to our education partners and all of our parents and representatives.”

The Kaiser High School Catamount Pride Band and Color Guard were also active recruiters. The magnitude of the fair allowed students to focus on their interests, whether academic, extracurricular or aesthetic.

impressed with the
ed for a school that will nsive programs in criminal er I go will need to have —more—

“When I was 5 years old my mom said to me, ‘You’re going to go to college,’ and from that moment forward I knew attending college was my destiny,” Fontana Unified elementary school counselor Debbie Dee said. “It’s so important for kids to know at an early age that going to college is achievable.”

PHOTO CAPTION:

FUSD_REGIONALFAIR Summit High School juniors Veronica Ybarra, Miracle Coleman and senior Yazmen Curtis were greatly impressed by the range of collegiate resources available at the inaugural Inland Empire Regional College Fair, held Sept. 25 at Ontario Convention Center.

# #