

Fontana Unified's Kaiser High Boasts Three QuestBridge National College Match Scholarship Finalists

FONTANA, CA— Three Henry J. Kaiser High School seniors are one step closer to earning a full scholarship to college after being named QuestBridge National College Match Scholarship finalists.

David Aguilar, Marco Garcia and Sonia Heyer are among nearly 7,000 students who will receive college admission and a four-year full scholarship.

“David, Marco and Sonia are all standout students who continue to impress us with their achievement and passion,” Kaiser High Principal Terry Abernathy said. “They are all very deserving of this scholarship, and we are cheering on our Kaiser Cats as they pursue their dreams.”
