A.B. MILLER TEACHER HONORARY CALIFORNIA LEAGUE OF HIGH SCHOOLS

Fontana, CA January 22, 2015 A.B. Miller High School Dance Teacher Nicole Robinson has been selected as California League of High Schools (CLHS) Educator of the Year for Region 10. Ms. Robinson is among an esteemed group of Southern California high school teachers who were reconsidered for one of the 10 awards given to high school teachers throughout California for their exemplary teaching and efforts to implement educational reform. Robert Gutierrez, a math teacher at Jurupa Hills High School, was also a regional finalist. A statewide recipient will be selected among the regional winners at the CLHS Annual Conference in Sacramento in late February.

Fontana USD Superintendent Dr. Leslie A. Boozer is enthusiastic about the recognition of Ms. Robinson. "We have teachers like Nicole working with and inspiring our students every day. We are so proud of her incredible efforts at A.B. Miller and are grateful that she received the recognition she so richly deserves."

A.B. Miller Principal Moises Merlos commented, "To see one of our own being recognized at this level. The recognition is well deserved."

Ms. Robinson has taught dance at A.B. Miller High School since 1995. Under her direction, A. B. Miller High School opened its Conservatory of Dance program for students in the Fontana Unified School District. This program is designed to help develop dancers who have an interest, passion and potential for growth in dance. The Career Technical Education Performing Arts Pathway under the Art, Media and Entertainment sector is innovative in its approach to exposing students to the arts through dance and
