

Fontana Unified has 12 schools that are AVID sites, with a district-wide recruitment process for eighth-graders and at every high school.

"Fontana Unified School District is dedicated to preparing students for college and career, and opportunities through AVID strengthen their understanding of what it takes to be successful," Fontana Unified